WRIT PETITION No.20824 of 2007

ORDER : (Per Hon'ble Sri Justice Bilal Nazki)

After hearing learned counsel for petitioner for a while, we feel that at present there is no cause of action available to the petitioner, as only a notice had been given to her, to which she had already replied and no orders have been passed against her. In this view of the matter, counsel for petitioner seeks to withdraw the writ petition, which is accordingly dismissed. However, if any order is passed against the petitioner hereinafter, she shall be at liberty to take any remedies that may be available to her in law.
